

January 24, 2019
Rotary Club of Kona Sunrise
POC: Nestorio Domingo (808) 443-8928
Kailua-Kona, Hawaii

NEWS RELEASE

As part of their “Promoting Peace” initiative, the Rotary Club of Kona Sunrise donated 900 pieces of “Peace Rules” foot rulers to Kahakai Elementary School on Wednesday, January 23. The rulers are made of recycled denim or newspaper and plastic.

Left to right: Rotary Club of Kona Sunrise Foundation Chair Dennis Rast, Kahakai Elementary School Principal Dr. Jim Denight and Rotary Club of Kona Sunrise President Nestorio Domingo

The club is also installing “Peace Poles” around West Hawaii area starting with one installed in December at the West Hawaii Civic Center. The peace poles come with peace messages including English, Hawaiian, Japanese and Filipino (Tagalog). Other locations being considered for peace poles are the Kona International Airport, Hale Halawai, Coconut Grove Market Place and Mauna Kea Visitor Center.

Left to right: Nestorio Domingo, David Bateman, Al Jubitz, Bob Kabeiseman and Barbara Kossow stand with the newly installed peace pole at the West Hawaii Civic Center in December